

CALL FOR FURNITURE AND OBJECTS DESIGNED BY ARCHITECTS

AIA Chicago seeks functional objects designed by architects to be considered for an exhibition later this year in a public venue, organized and presented by AIA Chicago. The exhibition will include furniture, fixtures, and other objects that have a functional design and represent the versatile talents of Chicago's architecture community. The exhibition will be scheduled to coincide with the timing of the Chicago Architecture Biennial. Submissions are due by 5:00pm CT on Friday, July 7.

How to submit:

1. Download and fill out this PDF. Please re-name your submission form as such: "LastName_ObjectTitle".
2. Choose four to ten photos to submit. Rename the photos as such: "ObjectTitle_01; ObjectTitle_02" etc.
3. Create a folder (also named "LastName_ObjectTitle") with this form and the images of your object.
4. Zip your folder and upload your submission package to this Dropbox folder.

Name

AIA Number*

*Designers must be an FAIA, AIA, Associate AIA, AIAS or AIA Chicago Student member.

Email Address

Phone

Name or Title of Object

Original Date of Fabrication (month, year)

Statement of contextual background, including description of materials and construction/fabrication, any special challenges or considerations, and any unique and/or innovative solutions. 200 word max.

Outside collaborators, including manufacturers and fabricators (indicate role with name):

Object dimensions (length x width x height):