Topic Summary:

The $1.2 trillion Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (IIJA) creates a once-in-a-generation opportunity to invest in roads, bridges, rails, and water infrastructure. Northeastern Illinois soon will start seeing millions of dollars that can go toward building a more resilient future. Join us for a presentation with Erin Aleman, Executive Director of the Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning (CMAP), who will share more about IIJA, what it means for the region, and how communities can compete for IIJA's many funding opportunities.

Speaker Bio:

Erin Aleman is Executive Director of the Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning (CMAP). Appointed in June 2019, Aleman oversees an agency that employs more than 100 staff members who develop and implement recommendations in ON TO 2050, the long-range plan for northeastern Illinois.

Aleman has more than 15 years of experience with developing transportation and land-use policies. She began her career at CMAP before moving to the Illinois Department of Transportation, first as a Bureau Chief and then Director of Office of Planning and Programming. In addition to being the first woman to serve as CMAP's Executive Director, Aleman is also first professional planner to lead the agency. Crain's Chicago Business recognized Aleman's accomplishments by naming her to its 2019 "40 Under 40" list.

Link to Broadcast of Presentation:

APWA is working with CMAP to provide IIJA information to communities and Public Works staff who are underserved and potentially underfunded which is a priority of IIJA. As you wish to convene a group at one location to watch Ms. Aleman's remarks APWA wants to help you. Please contact John Mick II, PE, APWA City Branch Education Chair, (312) 505-1149 to discuss this extra outreach.
