AIA Chicago Foundation Diversity Scholarship Undergraduate Application Questions Deadline: March 20, 2020

As a part of AIA Chicago's 150th anniversary celebration, the AIA Chicago Foundation has launched the AIA Chicago Diversity Scholarship Initiative: An opportunity to support students who will become talented young professionals in a more diverse Chicago community, recognizing the value of new and unique voices to the profession. The scholarship program stipulates:

- One (1) $10,000 scholarship for an undergraduate student, awarded over two years ($5000/year)
- Eligible undergraduate students must be going into their third (3rd) year or fourth (4th) year and enrolled in or transferring into the B.Arch program at the Illinois Institute of Architecture or the BS program in Architecture at the University of Illinois at Chicago

Awardee will also receive guidance and ongoing mentorship from AIA Chicago members throughout their educational tenure

\*Diversity Definition: The American Institute of Architects recognizes that diversity enhances our membership, our profession, and the quality of life in our communities. Our programs and initiatives shall reflect the society that we serve, regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation, physical abilities, or religious practices. AIA strives to ensure equal access to professional degrees in architecture for those who are underrepresented in our profession.*
